

<h2>Business Analysis</h2>		<h3>Topical Outline</h3>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Understanding IIBA™ Knowledge Area Content ● Understanding Enterprise Business Analysis Environment ● Understanding Requirements Planning and Managing Stake Holders ● Requirements Gathering ● Requirements Analysis and Documentation Modeling Techniques ● Identify Target Audiences ● Requirements Implementation Managing RFP's 		Knowledge Area Content <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Introduction BA body of knowledge ➤ Skills and Practices Enterprise Business Analysis Environment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Feasibility studies ➤ Identifying and scoping new business opportunities and deliverables Requirements Planning and Managing Stake Holders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Methodologies & team roles ➤ Activities & milestone dates ➤ Cost estimating Requirements Gathering <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Identifying inputs, tasks & outputs: focus group Requirements Analysis and Documentation Modeling Techniques <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Use Cases ➤ Process Flow ➤ Use Case and Class diagrams Requirement Communication Identify Target Audiences <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Formats ➤ Presentations ➤ Consensus and Sign-off Requirement Implementation Managing RFP's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Testing environments and script development ➤ Quality Assurance and turn-over
Description The Business Analyst (BA) is a key facilitator within an organization, acting as a bridge between business needs, stakeholders and the IT solution team. Business Analysts elicit, analyze, validate and document business, organizational and/or operational requirements and deliver solutions for those requirements.	Audience, Prerequisites IT Project Managers, entry-level Business Analysts and their managers, IT professionals interested in expanding their role, and self-taught analysts wanting to improve their skills and prepare for the IIBA Certification exam. Course length: 5 day Course format: lecture plus individual and group exercises and discussions.	